

Join us for the 2012 Glebe Society Christmas Party

to be held in the Upper Foyer of the new St Barnabas Church Broadway, 'Barneys'.

Friday 7 December 2012
7pm – 9pm

The UPPER FOYER is a beautiful architect designed venue, part of the new Barneys created on the site of the church building destroyed by fire in 2006.

ENJOY:

- wonderful Spanish tapas
- drinks
- live Spanish music
- and lots of Christmas spirit !

Cost: $58 per head
Book by 28 November

Barneys is at the corner of Mountain Street and Broadway, Glebe.
There is parking in Mountain Street, or in the Broadway Centre – or catch the bus from Glebe to the stop on Broadway right outside St. Barnabas Church.

Barneys has been known over the years as the church that the Eternity man, Arthur Stace, called home.

It is also somewhat famous for the public conversation spanning more than two decades between the pastor and the licensee of the pub across the road.

One sign announced

This church is for sinners

The publican responded

*This pub
is for drinkers*
